Armor of Love

The everyday reality for each one of us is that we are in a war. Every moment of every day we are in a battle for our lives. We can speak as positively as we like and the enemy will still come to kill, steal and destroy. Yeshua told us, "In this world ye shall have tribulation". He told us that those who heard his voice and obeyed him would face storms and win. He also warned us that those who heard his voice and ignored it would face storms and know defeat. I see lots of people who face the battles or storms of life like the three monkeys who covered their eyes, their ears and mouths. It matters little if folks pretend there isn't a battle raging around them, they are in a battle for their lives from the moment of birth whether they believe it our not.

If you've been in the religious world of the mainline Christian denominations you have no doubt heard lessons about the armor of God. You may have also seen teachings with a Messianic twist on them and seen the High Priest in his garments. We are the Body of Christ (the Anointed one and His anointing). We are supposed to walk in Spirit and in truth. So we can't throw out the "baby with the bath water". We need to take those lessons and add to them the deeper spiritual truths. We are a kingdom of kings and priests. In order for us to walk as both kings and priests we must first go in and possess the land. We can't possess the Promised Land until we possess our own souls and bodies (our own dirt) and make them submissive to our spirits and the Spirit of God. Now is NOT a time for selfishness and immatur-ity. It is a time to quit looking back on the easier times and wishing for the former glory. God has done everything He is going to do about our salvation, our deliverance, and our healing. He is requiring us to be like Joshua and quit depending on the school lessons of childhood and hear His voice and obey it. He is in effect saying, "Grow up" and "Put away your childish ways and be men". We want Yeshua/Jesus to do all the work while we sit and are fed like diapered babies in high chairs. Go look in the mirror, you aren't a baby anymore. Quit murmuring and whining about how hard things are and make yourself grow up.

The situation we are in today reminds me of the children of Israel before they went into the Promised Land. God basically had to let the older generation die out before He could use Joshua and Caleb's faith. They had to wait for 40 years to see their faith begin to manifest. Those of us with clear vision and obedient to God's voice today feel like Joshua and Caleb must have felt back then. We know we have to be patient in order to bring up a new generation of people who aren't all about self or afraid of their own shadows. In the meantime, we continue to study and prepare ourselves and stay on the top of our game while we wait. So we look again at the full armor of God.

Eph 6:11-20 Put on the whole armour of God that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against prin-

cialities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places. Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand. Stand therefore, having your loins girt (belt) about with truth, and having on the breastplate of righteousness; And your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace; Above all, taking the shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked. And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God: Praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, and watching thereunto with all perseverance and supplication for all saints; And for me, that utterance may be given unto me, that I may open my mouth boldly, to make known the mystery of the gospel, For which I am an ambassador in bonds: that therein I may speak boldly, as I ought to speak.

We don't have a battle with humans although the adversary uses his invisible (yet tangible) tricks to get us to battle one another constantly. If he can get us to fight and strive, he can steal, kill and destroy. James 3:16 For where envying and strife is, there is confusion and every evil work. The adversary was disarmed by the Lord at Calvary. The only weapons he has left are deceit, deception, trickery, lying, illusion, and cheating. We're the ones with power and if he can get us to hand over our power to him, he'll do it. He's a thief and a liar. He twists the truth to make it palatable. If we don't have the WHOLE armor on, he will find a way into our hearts.

God is love so if we are wearing the Armor of God, we're to wear the full armor of LOVE.

Matt 5:44-48 But I say unto you, Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you; That ye may be the children of your Father which is in heaven: for he maketh his sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sendeth rain on the just and on the unjust. For if ye love them which love you, what reward have ye? Do not even the publicans the same? And if ye salute your brethren only, what do ye more than others? Do not even the publicans so? Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect.

Let us look at each piece of armor with love in mind.

First let's look at the belt or girdle of truth. God's word is truth. Truth is the same yesterday, today and forever. Many people mistake facts for truth, but facts are subject to change and subject to time, but truth is always the same and never changing. If men follow the two commandments of love, they won't break the commandments written on stone. Matt 22:37-40 Jesus said unto him, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like unto it, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets. Here we see that walking and speaking in love we fulfill all the commandments! Eph 4:15 But speaking the truth in love, may grow up into him in all things, which is the head, even Christ. Our goal is to have "Christ in us, the hope of glory". Christ is in us, but the amount of Christ or Anointing depends upon how much of us we crucify and how much of the Holy Spirit we allow to manifest and flow. The anointing of the Holy Spirit destroys the yokes and bondages. Perhaps now you can see just how important this piece of armor is. Every day of our lives the adversary wants to keep us in a yoke of bondage. He wants to take us captive at his will. If we don't keep the truth going into us by praying in the spirit, studying and hearing the word preached, we will believe lies and be deceived. Put the belt or girdle of truth on NOW. Don't try to deal with the adversary without the truth; he's smarter and very experienced at tricking humans. Without a pure word from heaven he will take us captive to his deceptive will.

The breastplate of righteousness is a covering that protects the heart or the spirit of man. Knowing who you are in Christ (the Anointing) makes you confident. Knowing you are in right standing with God makes you like David as he faced Goliath. "Who is this uncircumcised Philistine that he should stand before the Most High?" He knew Goliath had no covenant with God so he was in effect a "dead man walking". He was as good as defeated and David knew his little slingshot couldn't miss its mark! Knowing how much you are loved by God because the Lord purchased righteousness for us is the confidence that enables you to stand in the face of unbelievable consequences and have perfect peace. 1 Thess 5:8 But let us, who are of the day, be sober, putting on the breastplate of faith and love; and for an helmet, the hope of salvation.

Having your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace is having cleated boots on. You can set your feet in the ground you're about to take and stand FOREVER. John the Baptizer prepared the way for the word. He was in effect plowing fallow ground to prepare it to receive the precious seed of the kingdom! He was making the crooked places straight. He was clearing rocks, pebbles and boulders. He was pulling up thorns and briars. In order to have a field produce a huge harvest you need to prepare the soil. Your heart is the soil that receives the Word of God or the Word of Love. Yeshua/Jesus said in John 14:10, “Believest thou not that I am in the Father, and the Father in me? The words that I speak unto you I speak not of myself; but the Father that dwelleth in me, he doeth the works”. Men who boast of their achievements for God know very little. None of us is doing a thing for God, God should be doing the work through us. We should be like conduit or extension cords from heaven to man. Phil 2:13 For it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure. If God didn’t give us breath this very second, we’d drop dead and cease to exist at His whim. Consider Herod when he was puffed up at hearing the people laud him as God. He was immediately eaten up of worms and died. Consider Nebuchadnezzar. He began by having a dream that was given to him by God. He eventually took that dream to a place where he exalted himself to the place of a god. He crawled around like an animal for quite a long time because of his pride. Repenting from dead works is preparing your heart for the word of God. In order to have a prepared heart, you must walk the walk and not just talk the talk.

The shield of faith or trust protects us from fiery darts. We, as the justified ones, must walk by faith. Faith requires that you believe God’s word whether you can see it working or not. Why? Because the cycle of faith coming and producing is just like sowing seed in the ground. We don’t normally see seeds working while they are in the ground. The process goes on and we merely tend them until they produce whatever God designed them to become. It takes tending and patience to produce a harvest. The shield must be drenched with the water of the Word in order to quench those fiery darts. You can’t take a dry shield to battle or it will catch fire and cause a bigger problem than one tiny fiery dart could ever cause. You can’t hear the word one time and go on successfully into battle. It requires strategies to defeat an unseen enemy. Our enemy has 6,000+ years of practice messing with humans. Unless we hear from God moment by moment we are facing a very battle hardened adversary. God is the only one in the mix with more experience than the devil.

The helmet of salvation is the helmet of Yeshua. The Hebrew word for salvation is Yahowshua or Yeshua for short. We are to keep our mind guarded from anything that runs contrary to the truth that we are the redeemed of the Lord. Yeshua did the work the Father sent him to do. He is our covering. We don’t need any other sort of covering between us and God or us and man. Remember, our prosperity in all areas is wrapped up in the prosperity of our souls; our minds, wills and emotions. No prospering in this area means no prospering anywhere else. The mind is the battleground. If satan can get you to know something rather than believe the word of God, he has you. Consider this: What killed Adam and Eve? No it wasn’t an apple, it was fruit from the tree of knowledge of good and evil. Look at that again. It was knowing good things and evil things that killed them. Before they ate of the tree they had faith or trusted in the voice of God. After they ate they feared and ran from the voice of God. Paul in his second letter to the Corinthians tells us how to deal with our minds. It will require casting down every single thought that runs contrary to the word of God or is a self exalting sort of word (2 Cor. 10:3-6).

Next we have the sword of the Spirit which is the word of God or in other words, praying in the Spirit. In Isaiah 28 we’re told that God would one day teach us with stammering lips and another tongue. It would be rest and refreshing. The prophet also warned that folks wouldn’t listen because they like the written word. They like to “figure things out” for themselves. Men love logic. Why? Men love logic because logic is eating from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. Figuring requires thinking and knowing. Believing requires trusting God as the Creator and All Mighty One. 1 Cor 14:2 For he that speaketh in an unknown tongue speaketh not unto men, but unto God: for no man understandeth him; howbeit in the spirit he speaketh mysteries. God speaks mysteries to our spirits when we pray in the spirit. This is how He gets winning strategies to us. We bypass the gray matter of our brains and hear directly from God. Again, it’s a matter of faith or trust.

There is other armory and weaponry that most folks don’t know or simply ignore; two-way communication or prayer, the cloak of zeal and the garments of vengeance. We shall address these garments next month.

On the Horizon

Taking back our families!

We receive prayer requests from our website on a daily basis. Most of the requests we get are for husbands and wives wanting to repair broken marriages. We also get requests from parents wanting their kids to be born again and walk in holiness. For this reason we are working on a newsletter called, “Ziklag”. David while being chased by Saul went into many battles. When he returned from Ziklag he and his men found their homes burnt, their families kidnapped and their lives in shambles. David did what he always did and went to God for an answer. 1 Sam 30:8 And David inquired at the LORD, saying, Shall I pursue after this troop? shall I overtake them? And he answered him, Pursue: for thou shalt surely overtake them, and without fail recover all.

Each one of us has something the adversary has stolen. We each can think of a child killed or gone astray. We have lost our goods to the enemy. For this reason we want to offer a resource full of helps in the pursuit to recover our families and the spoils the enemy has taken. We will post it on the web and make mention of it in upcoming First Light Heralds as the Lord leads us with directions. We will NOT be mailing it so you will have to download and print in from the web onto your computer. While we develop this newsletter we ask you to pray for us to clearly hear God’s voice for every step of this new teaching. With every effort to defeat the enemy, come new obstacles and challenges. We need your prayers every bit as much as you need ours. Please keep this newsletter before the face of Abba and we shall indeed overtake the enemy and recover all!

Praying For The Apostle

Matt 20:16 So the last shall be first, and the first last: for many be called, but few chosen.

Yeshua/Jesus called and chose the first apostles. We know them as the “Apostles of the Lamb” (Rev. 21:14). After he left the job was to be passed on to subsequent generations, but somewhere along the timeline the job was neglected and then forgotten. The Lord has once again called and is choosing apostles for these last days.

Rev 2:25 But that which ye have already hold fast till I come.

Rev 3:11 Behold, I come quickly: hold that fast which thou hast, that no man take thy crown.

Throughout biblical history man has been entrusted with God’s promises, commandments and assignments and throughout that same timeline men have become slothful to hold onto what has been entrusted to him. It matters little that the purchase of these gifts came with the lifeblood of men of God and of our Lord himself, men are by human nature lazy creatures. So here we are picking up where the generations of our ancestry left off. The words apostle or apostles run through the entirety of the New Covenant, but for some unknown reason we in the Body allowed ourselves to be tricked into believing that the job of the apostle was done away with when the last apostle died. When that day was we haven’t a clue, but we believed it nonetheless.

The job of the apostle was (and still is) a vital job. He/she was called and chosen by God as a foundation stone along with the prophets (See Romans 16:7 Junia being a woman apostle noted in your Strong’s Concordance). The apostle was responsible to receive the tithes and offerings of the Body and distribute them among the Body to wherever the need was (Acts 4:35, 5:2). The apostle was part of the foundation Yeshua/Jesus set under the household of faith (Ephesians 2:20). The very idea that God would put a foundation under and house and then remove it is ludicrous. I can imagine a magician or illusionist (the devil) pulling a tablecloth out from under our feasting table. The apostles restore order to the Body; that order being what to do first, second and third. They help us keep from running around like chickens with our heads cut off! They reveal the mystery of the Christ entrusted to them by God (Ephesians 3:5). The great signs and wonders of the early believers came through the apostles (2 Cor. 12:12, Acts 5:12). Great witness of the resurrection of Yeshua/Jesus came through the apostle (Acts 4:33). Apostles gave commandments to the Body much like a general would command his army (2 Peter 3:2). They also gave their up their comfort and very lives for the body.

1 Cor 4:9-15 For I think that God hath set forth us the apostles last, as it were appointed to death: for we are made a spectacle unto the world, and to angels, and to men. We are fools for Christ's sake, but ye are wise in Christ; we are weak, but ye are strong; ye are honorable, but we are despised. Even unto this present hour we both hunger, and thirst, and are naked, and are buffeted, and have no certain dwelling place; And labor, working with our own hands: being reviled, we bless; being persecuted, we suffer it: Being defamed, we entreat: we are made as the filth of the world, and are the off scouring of all things unto this day . I write not these things to shame you, but as my beloved sons I warn you .For though ye have ten thousand instructors in Christ, yet have ye not many fathers: for in Christ Jesus I have begotten you through the gospel.

There is NO other name given amongst men whereby we MUST be saved. What is that name? Yeshua

The job of apostle may seem glamorous to some, but clearly those who believe that is so are not called or are ignorant to the job description of apostle. It isn't a job that anyone would knowingly volunteer to do without the guarantee that it is God indeed who wants the work of an apostle done. For this reason we believe the Apostle Paul included praying for him as part of the full armor of God (Eph. 6:18-20). All but one of the Apostles of the Lamb died a martyr's death. John was the only apostle we know of that died of old age, but not before he had been boiled in oil. Ok, now tell me which of you would volunteer to be an apostle? We covet your prayers as we do this important work of the Body.

Red Capes

I don't know how many times we have to fall prey to the enemy's tricks before we jump up and say, "Hey, I'm not going to get tricked again", but I for one am ready to learn. Over and over I fall for the same old trick. I've seen it worked from many angles, but I still fall for it. You probably are wondering what I'm talking about. We're told that we don't wrestle against flesh and blood. We're told that we do wrestle against unseen forces at four levels.

Eph 6:12 For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places.

What do we do? Let's look at my favorite natural picture of this ruse of the enemy. Consider a bull charging a matador with a red cape. Sure he's vaguely aware that the matador is behind the red cape, but the bull is really focusing on the movement of the red cape. He's so focused that he doesn't see the sword that is hidden in the folds of the cape. Why is he so worked up over a cape? Because before the matador puts a sword in the cape a few other less significant men called peones have teased them with capes and the picadores have pricked his flesh with painful lances. The peones job is to show the matador which side the animal favors when a cape is flashed before it. If that wasn't bad enough in come some banderilleros with banderillas. The banderillas are brightly decorated sticks with barbed hooks on their tips. The bull is bleeding, angry and ready to charge anything by this time. After the picardors and banderilleros have done their dirty work the matador comes in all dressed for the kill. He smiles at his audience. Everyone in the audience knows the outcome of what they're about to see. They are all in it to see blood flow and the death of the bull. So it is with the devil and his angels. They all know what he's about. Interestingly enough there are four levels of attack in a bull fight just as there are four levels of attack from the adversary.

The cape is a picture of the flesh and blood people we live with every day. If the enemy can get us to fight with them, to earnestly believe that the person we're striving with is the problem, we will become cheap work for him and his minions.

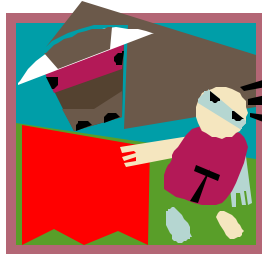

Again I ask myself, "How many times will I fall for his subterfuge? I say to you all, let's agree that we'll work together for the purposes of our God? Let's believe what He has told us and walk in love. Let's be so quick to forgive and forget that we all gang up and charge the matador. Let's put him under our feet where he belongs. Can't you just see it now? All the young bulls get together and break down the walls of their pens. They enter the corrida with one purpose, get the matador! They form a circle around him and then force him out in the open where the light can shine on him. (There are no corners in a corrida so avoid thinking you can corner the devil.) When the light shines on the matador it hits his sword. Now all the bulls stand up and pull out swords of their own. Hey, this is my dream so play along with me! The swords these bulls brandish are two-edged. Just about this time the bulls unzip their costumes and out of the fur and hooves stand soldiers dressed in full armor. They go after the matador and take his sword (The sword is the stolen property of some poor guy; it's been neglected and is crooked and rusty). They all turn around with their faces to the crowd and sit on the matador, but not before they all in unison thrust him through with their swords. Last of all they stand up on him with their boots and crush the last little bit of life out of him. The ugly peones, picadores and banderilleros run out of the corrida with all their tails tucked. The crowd all cheers and throw roses at the mighty soldiers. About this time a trumpet (shofar) sounds in heaven and Yeshua/Jesus descends from on high!

So how does this scenario play out for us in everyday reality? We see a fight about to happen. You know what I mean. You can feel a fight before it really gets going. You feel your blood pressure begin to rise. STOP. You've just sensed the tangible forces of darkness. Do not go after the cape, it's a trick. Before it gets too far, before we say something hurtful and ugly to some human (whether deserved or not). We start praying in the spirit (the sword of the spirit is to pray in the spirit). This is where we run the adversary through! Next we turn away from the enemy because we're completely trusting in God and the sword of the spirit. We are fully armed anyway because we know our weaponry. We have just overcome all to stand by running the adversary through. He may make moaning sounds and cry "uncle", but we're not through yet. We must now stand on him with our cleated boots! The fight will soon go out of him. After he's been defeated his demonic hoards will run in sheer terror. Their leader is defeated and they have no courage of their own without his commands.

It's time we realized that we aren't ever to wrestle against humanity. We don't wrestle against the evil of this world. Eventually all light will push darkness out forever. Let's just diffuse the time bombs and explosives by refusing to fight one another. Our fight is the good fight of faith. It requires us to fight against the unseen, but our weaponry is mighty through God to the pulling down of strong holds! We can do it; we just have to learn not to chase those red capes.

World Wide Body Connections

We received an email from Chima Anyanwu in Abia State, Nigeria. It had been months since we had received an email from him. He told us that in early September he had been in a very bad accident and was recovering. He had been through much surgery because of all the damage done to his body. We ask all of you to pray for his finances as he is a brand new father and also must pay for all the surgery he underwent to save his life. He shared more about himself and his family and we look forward to a photograph. He also asked for more Igbo bibles for the pastors in his area. We just ordered a case of them to send to him for distribution. We also found the Igbo New Testament on cassette and ordered a complete set.

Chima is short for Chimaroke which means "my future is in God's hands". He is 35 and has one child (a brand new baby!)

Chima requested a special book full of old formulas and recipes for home remedies and cleaning products. We found it online and sent it ahead to Nigeria. His people will take the information and make products for sale. We trust that God will use the information we have shared to help prosper these wonderful people.

We ask for all of you to come in agreement for complete restoration and healing in Chima's body as well as recovery of all the finances the enemy has stolen because of the accident. We believe that what the enemy means for our destruction God is able to turn for our best. Chima asked we pray and praise God through Psalms 116 for his life. We count ourselves so blessed to have a brother with such a heart to praise God in the midst of such pain and adversity. He may be across the planet from us, but he is truly part of the body and we feel his sorrow and suffering. We lift him and his family up for God's best. The devil is a liar. He will live and not die and declare the works of the Lord.

We have not heard from Barnabas in India in a while. We ask for you all to pray that he will contact us and update us to things in India. He is a precious Evangelist and we pray for Psalms 91 protection, for 2 Corinthians 9:6-10 provision for him and his family. This is a man who would willingly travel across India to share the word of salvation with the dying Muslim father of a dear friend.

He has suffered great persecution for the name of our Lord, Yeshua Hamashiach. His commitment to God is so inspiring that when in his presence we both experienced guilt at our lack of zeal. We lift him up and thank God for such a brother in the service of all of the body. His wife Skeeter and three children also suffer great persecution for their stand for the gospel. Please remember them in your prayers as well.

We also ask for your prayers for Pastors Pavel and Irina in Minsk, Belarus. They were such inspirations and so much help to me during my five weeks in Belarus. The isolation one feels when staying in a foreign country can not be expressed in words. To have God place such wonderful people to share the gospel and to minister to your very needs, let me just say there just are not enough words of thanks that I can say. The congregation there in Minsk is so precious to me and I feel as if I owe my very life to them.

I want to mention some names of others in Belarus that need your prayers as well: Galina, Elena, Vitaly, Artur, Natasha, George, Katya, Ivan, Luba and her family, Sasha, Sergei, Tanya, Variya and her family, Sveta, and the orphans of Belarus. You may not know their last names or have faces to connect to them, but God knows who they are and will hear our voices raised for them. We pray for salvation for those who do not know the Lord. We pray for God's protection and godly prosperity for those who do know the Lord.

Confession for the Lost

We all have friends and family who are lost. Below is a list of scriptures that deal with salvation. God through Joshua told us to meditate upon the word day and night and then after we had revelation of His will we should confess what we hear from Him. We use our resources to help you meditate and then confess for those in your lives that are backslidden or lost. It is God's will that NO MAN perish, but all come to the saving knowledge of His son Yeshua. By filling your spirits with the word on salvation you can pray and confess with power. We are after effective prayer and so knowing the word will make our prayers be just that! Bon appetit once again.

- ?? Luke 1:76-80 And thou, child, shalt be called the prophet of the Highest: for thou shalt go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways; To give knowledge of salvation unto his people by the remission of their sins, Through the tender mercy of our God; whereby the dayspring from on high hath visited us, To give light to them that sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the way of peace. And the child grew, and waxed strong in spirit, and was in the deserts till the day of his shewing unto Israel.
- ?? Acts 4:12 Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved.
- ?? Luke 2:25-32 And, behold, there was a man in Jerusalem, whose name was Simeon; and the same man was just and devout, waiting for the consolation of Israel: and the Holy Ghost was upon him. And it was revealed unto him by the Holy Ghost, that he should not see death, before he had seen the Lord's Christ. And he came by the Spirit into the temple: and when the parents brought in the child Jesus, to do for him after the custom of the law, Then took he him up in his arms, and blessed God, and said, Lord, now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace, according to thy word: For mine eyes have seen thy salvation, Which thou hast prepared before the face of all people; A light to lighten the Gentiles, and the glory of thy people Israel.
- ?? Eph 1:16-23 Cease not to give thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers; That the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give unto you the spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of him: The eyes of your understanding being enlightened; that ye may know what is the hope of his calling, and what the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the saints, And what is the exceeding greatness of his power to usward who believe, according to the working of his mighty power, Which he wrought in Christ, when he raised him from the dead, and set him at his own right hand in the heavenly places, Far above all principality, and power, and might, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this world, but also in that which is to come: And hath put all things under his feet, and gave him to be the head over all things to the church, Which is his body, the fulness of him that filleth all in all. (One of the greatest prayers for the lost and the believer.)
