Invisible Enemies

Hollywood is famous for taking something from an idea to a Technicolor production. The folks in the visual industries paint pictures that play in our minds over and over. One such "moving picture" that is running in my mind is the movie "Predator". An alien from another world has landed on earth and is causing havoc. This alien has the capability of cloaking himself to a great extent, but he is not completely unseen. If he moves too quickly he "shimmers".

We too have an alien force at work in our world. The leader of this force and his minions come from the spirit realms and are wreaking havoc with the natural realm. He can't be seen, but like his Hollywood doppelgänger he isn't completely masked. For those who know what to look for, his presence isn't cloaked. He can be defeated, but only if and when he is recognized and dealt with.

The apostle Paul understood our enemy very well. Most of the battle strategy given the Body of Christ came to us through him. He was like the movie "Predator's" hero, Sylvester Stalone. He knew how the enemy's cloaking devices worked and how to overcome and defeat his unseen foe.

Everything we fight against in this realm comes from the dark side of the spirit realm, but I have good news, they can and have been defeated. We have excellent intel from the light side of the spirit realm, and we have the technology to defeat them!

If mankind would stop and take the time to read our training manual with a different mindset than that of religion, I believe we'd see many more battles won against our unseen but perceivable enemy and his crew.

We're told that "the weapons of our warfare aren't carnal "nature based" or "flesh based", but MIGHTY through God (the great military general of all creation) to the pulling down of strongholds, (the enemies mind tricks) casting down imaginations (more military trickery) and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ". (The anointing power that originally defeated our predator)!

This generation of children seems obsessed with military games and strategies. I don't find it one bit coincidental. God is calling forth (once again) an army to hold back His enemies until the movie reel stops, the popcorn is swept from the theater and we all go home.

I remember sitting with my earthly father and watching old World War 2 movies

Special points of interest:

- The word is alive and has within it spiritual DNA that causes it to become whatever is spoken and acted upon.
- The word is the same yesterday, today and forever.
- God has magnified His word above His very name!
- God gave us His Word and told us to hear Him and obey Him.
- God upholds all things by the word of His power!

and documentaries. For reasons then known only to God (that great general) I sat fixated and learned to think differently than the average girl. I'm one of many women called to the front-lines of this last day battle scene against our God's foes. I know the enemy's technology and am battle scarred enough to know his cruel and nasty ways of taking down our side. I have also read the script of the movie we are living out and I know the end of the story. Did you know we win and live happily ever after? The good guys always win in the end!

Nothing Hidden

Mark 4:22 "For there is nothing hid, which shall not be manifested; neither was any thing kept secret, but that it should come abroad."

I mentioned that our enemy is invisible to our eyes, but did you know that every human on the planet can unmask him and know exactly when he and any one of his foot soldiers are near? God has given us the "intelligence" to recognize his presence and also how to resist and defeat him.

James 1:17 Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning. (We are the lights mentioned here!)

Proverbs 10:22 The blessing of the LORD, it maketh rich, and he addeth no sorrow with it. (If it's good it's from God, if it's bad it's from the enemy).

First we MUST begin to think differently at the outset of this battle we are in. Our enemy is a master at trickery, camouflage, redirection, illusion and propaganda. If he can trick us into believing God is the liar and not to be believed he wins. If on the other hand we look at our bibles as training manuals for the greatest battle ever fought, we can win.

After the enemy killed my husband he began attacking me in ways I won't even go into, but you see I knew his M. O. and God began revealing his latest plans to me. I did what I've always done; I went back to the manual and got in battle mode. After a seven day fast of natural food and seven days of MREs (that's military rations), after consulting with my fellow soldiers and military leaders, after bringing in a helper I've unmasked my enemy again. He over played his hand and I recognized his schemes. He's holding on "by the skin of his teeth", but I've won again and now I'm sharing his military strategies with everyone I know!

Earth is the battle ground this whole thing will be played on. God set it up that way. He gave us the rules the battle had to be played under. The enemy has to play by God's rules, the only freedom he has is self given and that is his power to lie and to deceive. He is the antithesis of truth and light. If it's mean and nasty he is behind it. He's the supreme legalist and if he can get fools to believe they can achieve a goal perfectly without God, he takes 'em down.

During my seven day siege, I hunkered down in my home. I stopped eating long enough to get my flesh under. Then I began taking an IV drip of super food from heaven. I filled up on so much word I thought it was going to ooze from my eyeballs and eardrums. I spoke the word, ate the word, and even drank in the word. When I would get tired of reading the word to myself I enlisted a close friend to read to me. We left the things of this world for the entire time. We listened to a single preaching tape so many times we both started quoted it and laughing at the funny things in it long before the preacher mentioned them. We both thought we were going to burst we heard the same verses over and over and over again. But we also knew that we were going to keep at it until the thing was over and I do mean over. God's word is alive, it fully capable of doing exactly what each word promises. I know what it means to be fully persuaded as I have been so. I'm still at it. I won't ever let myself get that far down again.

Proverbs 4:20-24 is the divine prescription for healing in our bodies. God has never left us without answers to our situations. He has said in His word that with EVERY temptation we face, He has made a way of escape. When we need healing in body we can turn to these verses and follow them for healing to be manifested. Now mind you His word works exactly like seeds. First we have to prep the soil of our hearts. He told us through John the Baptizer that we must come to the place where we are willing to quit doing things in our own strength. That is called "repentance from dead works". Then we must accept His way of doing things. Everything we do that God accepts is done through faith or trust in Him and His word. We lay down our own ways and accept His salvation, His healing, His deliverance, and His provision. God is Love personified. He demonstrates Himself by sending healing, deliverance, salvation and provision. If we put our complete trust in Him and thus in His written word, He can begin the process of whatever we are believing Him for.

Proverbs 4: 20-24 My son (this means daughters too), attend to my words (chew them up, think about them, mutter them); incline thine ear unto my sayings (listen so you can practice them). 21 Let them not depart from thine eyes (focus on the word and not on the fear, symptoms in body or anything that makes you feel uncomfortable); keep them in the midst of thine heart (think the "keep" in a castle; you're guarding the words from the fowls trying to eat them). 22 For they are life unto those that find them (the word of God is literally alive and life giving), and health to all their flesh (in Hebrew this word means medicine). 23 Keep thy heart with all diligence (again think the "keep" in a castle); for out of it are the issues of life. 24 Put away from thee a forward mouth (do not speak a single word that contradicts what God, who speaks nothing but eternal truth says in His word), and perverse lips put far from thee. (Get some pink duct tape and use it if you can't keep your mouth shut.)

I needed healing and deliverance; first, deliverance from the fears that were plaguing me. After Jeff went home to be with God the fears began showing up. I was so down because of my loss that I let them (the fears) play carnival in my mind. My word level was so low that I had no defenses. I did have enough vision and God still had enough access to me that I started contacting every spirit filled believer I knew to pray for me and cover me with their love and faith. I hooked up to everyone the Lord led me to and let them know I needed them. I was not about to go into battle alone and try and defeat an enemy with almost 6,000 years experience in the battlefield. I may be only 54, but I am not a fool.

I then surrounded myself with all my tools. I gathered books on healing and deliverance, my bible, my concordances and a CD that I knew had some of the things I needed to fill my arsenal with ammo. I was about to unplug for a period of time in order to take back what the enemy stole. I also contacted a trusted sister. She had successfully helped me war for Jeff's life in the past I and knew she would be an asset. Together we stood for the seven days. My friend (who was not fasting) took care of the farm duties and the household chores. She also helped with some "tag team" scripture reading and encouragement. At the close of the seven days the enemy was getting jumpy and really put out everything he had. My girlfriend and I knew that it was going to get tougher towards the end of the siege. The enemy got jumpy and pulled out the stoppers. He threw his best at us in the way of fears and alarming symptoms in my body. Our strategy was a “signal” word that we agreed on. When I would “feel” whatever thing he threw at us, I would use our “signal” word. My girlfriend would ask me what I was suffering and would use the verse the Lord gave her to help me overcome the fear. Fear is tormenting. Terrorists are very good at using fear to immobilize their enemies. Getting past the fear of horrific body symptoms was my greatest hurdle, but Praise God again His word was effective at routing these fears. When he couldn't make me afraid of what was going on in my body, he left the premises. Of course I know he's getting ready for another attack, but I won't be unarmed the next time.

I share all of this for a reason. I promised God that when I got my deliverance I would do exactly what one of the verses I read to myself over and over said. I promised to serve Him. Of course I was willing to serve Him before, but before I was much more wishy washy in my faith. Once you've tried His word and proved it faithful, you will never be satisfied with fence sitting. I share a verse that helped me through the battle.

Exodus 23:25-26 25 And ye shall serve the LORD your God, and he shall bless thy bread, and thy water; and I will take sickness away from the midst of thee. 26 There shall nothing cast their young, nor be barren, in thy land: the number of thy days I will fulfill.

Why Trust the Word?

I want to end this newsletter with some faith builders. I know that taking God's word to the lowest common denominator will make it much easier for you to eat. First let us remember the following verse:

Luke 8:11 tells us THE most important thing we will ever know about our bibles.

The seed is the word of God.

Every word you read in your bibles is seed. God used seeds when He spoke the first words of creation. His first seed was, “Light be”. He was releasing His Son (the ultimate seed) onto the earth to destroy the works (darkness) of the devil.

1 John 3:8 He that committeth sin is of the devil; for the devil sinneth from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil.

The battle that we fight is a spiritual one. Why is it spiritual (breath related)? Because we are spirits, God is a spirit and the enemy is a dead (separated from God) spirit. We have souls; minds, wills and emotions and we live in bodies. When Adam chose to listen to the enemy and eat of the tree of knowledge of good and evil he was “adopted” or rather “kidnapped” by the dead spirit we call hasatan (the adversary in Hebrew). The spirit realm is real just as the microscopic world is real yet unseen to the naked or unenhanced eye. Everything natural was made of spiritual power. God released His power into words and then spoke them. He imagined “light” and the qualities of luminescence and then released them with the “holy” breath or Ruach Kodesh to cause them to be made into matter.

Every seed sown must go through a process before it can produce its fruit. It must be planted. It must die or it abides alone. Then it must be watered, kept free of weeds and fertilized. So it is with any promise of God. First we “sow” the words by speaking them and releasing “breath” into the atmosphere. Our spirits or hearts are the garden the seeds are sown into. We believe or trust that the garden of our heart is good ground. We continue to water the seed by speaking it and other word into our hearts. Faith or trust is the power that causes the seed to go from an “acorn” to an oak tree. Trusting that God is good to His word is vital for the seeds of faith to produce.

We’re told that “without faith it is impossible to please God”. Faith comes by hearing and hearing comes by the word of God. When we choose to trust God at His word, do what He says, “sow” His word in our hearts and then act on what we are trusting Him for it will manifest. My healing and deliverance came because I sowed healing “seeds” and deliverance “seeds” in my heart. I then watered them, weeded them and now I’m enjoying harvest. I am also preparing for a new harvest. I never stop sowing.

It isn’t weird to think of this whole process if you remember that in Eden God planted a garden! He put Adam and Eve in it and told them to go forth and multiply! If you want anything promised by God in His word, you must sow it! He still wants us to go forth and multiply! I look forward to sharing more about this process in the months ahead.

Sowing Spiritual Reaping Carnal

I am living a supernatural life these days. Jeff has been gone almost five months and yet God has talked to the Body and they have met my needs. I’m constantly amazed at how He does it. He promised that if I would sow spiritually He would bless me naturally. I want to thank those of you who have heard and continue to send your “carnal” goods to help me keep on keeping on. I told Him long ago that I would keep doing the spiritual, and I would trust Him to supply the natural needs. He is a good husband to me now that Mr. Jeff has left the building. I sure miss Jeff, but God is taking good care of me in the meantime. I thank Him constantly for talking to the Body to send what I need to live on and keep hearing from Heaven for them.

A New Thing

You will notice that I have not included a calendar in this newsletter. I have chosen to do so for the following reason, I want to be free to hear God to go wherever He wants me. I could schedule “meetings” like others do, but I don’t believe that is what He wants of me. I have found that if I go completely led of the Holy Spirit, God is freer to move and work miracles for those of you who He sends me to. Also if you should get in a tight place and need some emergency care I will be much freer to come to where you are. I am presently working to place all my animals in homes so I can travel freer. I am also working to sell some things that would free me up in many ways to be able to travel as well. I am also going to list my prayer needs so you can simply say, “Father I agree that Cerise has _____ need met”. That’s all I need from you is your voice and agreement.

Please be in agreement that my 27’ Avion Travel Trailer is sold and the buyer will come and get it.

Be in agreement for a quick transfer of all property into my name (out of Jeff’s) and for the finances to probate the land I’m presently living on.

Also agreement that the medical bill I incurred when I went to the ER is paid. (I’m so thankful God is gracious to let us get emergency help until we can do the word thing!)

Please be in agreement that my mobile home is sold and that I can sell the contents in it. (The sale of this will produce seed and reduce my monthly expenses by over $1,000 a month).

Please be in agreement that I will find the perfect building to move onto my land and I will be able to create a ministry office in it as well as sleeping accommodations for visitors.

Please be in agreement for the repair of my van and Kia, then for the sale of the Kia.

I have placed these prayers in order of importance. I thank you for your voices and for your continuing love and support. Every little word you speak to God for me makes my life easier and is so vital. Every dollar you sow into my life enables me to get before the throne for you, to spend more time in the word for answers and enables me to come to where you are and meet the needs God can supply through me.
