This newsletter was created for those of you who find themselves in the midst of the battle of their lives. After many years of marriage the enemy has stolen your spouse through the deception of lust, sin and adultery. Marriage and family were God's first acts after the creation. Woman was taken out of man so that the man would not be alone. God told his man to be fruitful and multiply. God manifested or created man to destroy the works of the adversary and by doing so declared war against an unseen enemy. It's no wonder that marriage and the family are on the run today. They have been on the defensive and offensive since creation. The enemy has had 6000 years to learn all our strengths and weaknesses, but God is greater and though you and I don't know all the answers our He does.

The thief comes but to steal, kill and destroy.

So what makes me an official? My family was attacked; first at the birth of our daughter. She was born with birth defects. Secondly we were under attack with the death of our son with SIDS and finally with the temptation and sin of adultery. I'm not saying we no longer have attacks, but I am saying because we fought back and won these battles we stand as a united front with intelligence into the tactics of the adversary.

Each article that will be included in this first newsletter will be foundational. We must have a firm footing to be able to stand against the wiles or tricks of the adversary. He will send storms to knock us over. He will send storms to try our foundation, but if we stand firm on bedrock he can't move us.

There are many counselors in the world, but this problem is a holy war and secular tactics are temporary at best. Secular or non-spiritual means can not defeat an unseen enemy. If you are not a believer in the word of God, you may need to rethink your position. You can't see the forces that are coming against your life and the lives of those you love. You are like Don Quixote tilting at the windmills of your mind if you don't use spiritual means to win your battle.

If you are a believer and think you can mix mental and physical tactics with spiritual you are mistaken. You must use spiritual against a spiritual enemy. You need someone with more knowledge than you have to help you win this war. Spiritual weaponry isn't fanatical or nonsensical, but it is past the mind when it comes to discovery. You can't figure out the adversary with your limited mind, but you can have your mind renewed to understand how he works and how to defeat him. That's what this publication is about. Using spiritual means to defeat an unseen but very real spiritual enemy. I trust you will find actual help and armory to use to rescue you and your family.

Special points of interest:

??The enemy has way more experience at stealing, killing and destroying.

??God has seen your end from your beginning. He has your answers.

??He has made a way of escape from the trouble you're in. Let Him show you!

Why Me Lord?

James 1:23
Curious
enough to find out what
it says?

I've spoken and ministered to many women and men who want to understand why their spouses would betray them. They recount conversations that they've had in the past where the spouse swears undying devotion and promises never to abandon or leave them for someone else. Any yet over and over it happens. Why? It is because number one; we all have an enemy and number two he's very experienced at defeating well meaning humans.

These same people think I'm psychic when I paint a scenario of their lives. They sort of go to church or maybe even go to church every Sunday and Wednesday. They believe in Jesus Christ and God. They may even give tithes, but the mess they find themselves in takes them totally by surprise. One spouse usually ends up "counseling" some hurting spouse of a friend or some co-worker and they end up in bed and may even end up in divorce. I tell them that this sort of thing runs in the family and follows a distinct pattern. Remember you have an unseen enemy. He is nothing but a fallen defeated angel of deception. He is called, "The father of all lies". He is no longer allowed in the realms of light, but hides in the shadows and the "gray matter" of our brains. He occupies our ignorance and consumes any misunderstood word. He has been around for more time that we have recorded. He has been here longer than man. He has had all that time to learn how to trick, trap, deceive and destroy mankind. He knows what you will like before you like it. How does he do this? He watches your ancestors. What tricked and trapped grandpa and grandma is likely to do the same to you. So if grandpa had adulterous tendencies the son will have the same "familiar" spirits hovering in his life. And should the son be ignorant to the devices of the adversary, the grandson will follow in his footsteps.

Look at your spouse's family line. Do they like alcohol or other addictive things way too much? Chances are good your spouse will be like minded. These things are called, "generational curses" in the bible. They were dealt with spiritually thousands of years ago, but if we don't know it we won't stand for our rights. In case you don't know you have rights in Christ Jesus, Messiah Yeshua that supersede all the curses of the law. One thing must become very clear is that you can have rights and never enjoy the benefits of them if you don't stand up for them. Let me draw you a picture. Slavery was illegal and the rights of black men and women were laws almost 100 years before many black folks stood on them. Their right to fair and equal treatment was in effect for a long time before anyone got bold enough to claim and stand on it. Why, because there were bullies in the land.

You must stand for your rights as believers in the Lord in order to enjoy the benefits of being an Anointed child of the Most High God. Sure you are His sons and daughters, but the adversary is a legalist to the nth degree. He will hold onto whatever he can steal from you. If he can steal your spouse, he will do so. If he can steal your kids, he will do so. If he can steal your goods, he will also do so. He is ultimately after the throne of your heart, so he's really after the seed (the written and living Word-Yeshua) that was sown in your heart. If he can discourage you and get you to believe he has power he will do all of these things. You HAVE to stand up and take back what was stolen from you. Don't wait for God to retrieve your goods, you will wait forever. God has done all He ever plans to do about your salvation. He did it all in the Lord Yeshua. He took back at the very root level everything the adversary stole. He gave all power and authority to him as a reward for his sorrow and suffering life and death on planet earth. Eventually the Lord will hand the whole "kit and caboodle" back to God, but for now he sits on the throne of heaven ruling.

Don't be surprised that you've been robbed. Don't whine and cry to God, but do cry out to God for wisdom. You need lots of it if you're going to get back your goods. You can't sit on your fanny and get a thing back. Slothfulness is what got you were you are in the first place. You spent too much time with the world and not enough with God and that's how you got where you are in the first place. Now you have a mess. You can't expect God in a flash what you spent a lifetime messing up. It's going to take tenacity, diligence, and lots of hard work, but it will be worth every second you invest to win back your loved ones. Not only will you take back your spouse, but you will rescue your children and anyone else who may be close enough to feel the power and presence of God working in your life. So get busy and first make the decision to take back what the devil has stolen.

Why Me Lord?

First Things First

You can't defeat an enemy if you're on his side. Without the new birth into God's kingdom you will always have the adversary sitting on your shoulder with an advantage. Because of our great-great-great-great-great grandfather Adam's sin we have sin resident in our very being. We have corruption at a "cellular" level. We need someone with greater power than our own to rescue us from this cellular pollution. That is where the Lord comes in. God manifested His son to destroy the works of the adversary (1 John 3:8). He began in Adam (no God didn't make a mistake with Adam-He just had very clear and long sighted vision) and finished the work in the last Adam, Yeshua/Jesus. God knew perfectly well what Adam was about to do. We're told that the death of Yeshua for sin was conceived before the foundation of time.

For this reason you need to come over to the Kingdom of Light, or into God's family. He has provided an adoption back into His family. In order to be accepted we must take God's provision or "salvation" from the cellular pollution we call sin.

We as humans tend to categorize things into boxed sets. Sin is a "religious" word to many so if we don't like religion they will simply ignore the word and its ramifications. Sin is a law. Let's look in a completely different direction to glean an understanding of sin. Let's look at the law of gravity. What comes up must come down. If you throw a ball up it will cause certain things to happen, but eventually it will come down. Gravity remains pretty constant. Laws of nature, laws of physics are constant and therefore dependable. So is the law of sin and death. The minimum wage of sin is death. You can't sin and not be paid its wages. Unless something supersedes the law of sin, say for instance the law of the spirit of life in Christ Jesus, sin will ultimately kill you. Sin began as pollution at the cellular level and if allowed to continue on its path will cause destruction. The one who defined sin is the ONLY one who can overcome it. He did so at Calvary. What is Calvary? Calvary is a familiar term for the crucifixion of God in flesh known as Yeshua/Jesus.

What makes Yeshua/Jesus different than any other man alive? He was conceived by the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit has no sin living resident. The Holy Spirit is pure and as the name specifies; Holy. Yeshua was conceived in the body of a woman, but his blood never crossed into her blood. His blood was that of God. The bible tells us that "the life is in the blood" (Leviticus 17:11). The pure and holy life of God was running through the veins of the Lord. After Yeshua was baptized in the Holy Spirit and the Holy Spirit was passed from John the Baptizer to him, he was completely led of the Spirit. He heard, believed and acted on the Voice of Almighty God. Before that time he was "torah observant". He only read, believed and acted upon the entire Torah and the Prophets. After he had fulfilled all righteous acts of the written Torah, he was led to only do what the Father said. He walked and talked completely by faith in the Voice. That is what you need.

Each of us has a path to walk down. We will either go our own way, or we will go and obey the Father and His way. We can continue to try to do things with mere human strength or we can tap into the power of heaven and walk as sons of God. We have access to the divine nature, but it is ONLY through the knowledge of Yeshua/Jesus and what he did and is doing (2 Peter 1:4).

We all need God's provision for cellular corruption or sin. His provision is His Son, Yeshua the Anointed Messiah. The name Yahowshua (the long full formal name of the Lord) means Yah's salvation in Hebrew. We need God who is all seeing, all knowing, and ever present to be our Savior. His solution was to divide Himself; Spirit, Soul and Body and come down to earth and covenant with Himself to save us. No one else is capable. It requires faith or trust in eternal truth for us to believe this. God has committed to us that His word NEVER changes. It remains constant like the laws of nature or laws of physics. Actually it is more constant, because God Himself can affect or supersede those laws. His word (Ps. 89:34) never changes and He will not alter that which goes out of His mouth. We need a Savior who never changes and Yeshua/Jesus is the same yesterday, today and forever (Heb. 13:8).

Your Part

This newsletter is completely free of charge to you. I have taken the time to pray and hear God for what you need to win. That means it costs me. It takes time to study, pray and listen. It takes time to put on paper these words. God expects in covenant relationships for mutual sowing and reaping for the good of the Body. If I sow of my spiritual truth, you should sow your carnal like seed in good ground. (1 Cor 9:11 If we have sown unto you spiritual things, is it a great thing if we shall reap your carnal things?) You definitely want to reap and in order for there to be a harvest on your end and my end we need to sow and reap. Help me help you. The web-site costs money, everything we do here in ministry has a cost so sow if you want a harvest. There is a "prophet's reward" so consider your sowing financially so that you can reap of my spiritual. I did not call myself to be a prophet, but God called me. I can't avoid the call and it is dangerous to do so. I am only doing what He has asked of me. Sow so you can reap. I am sowing what I have (spiritual truth) expecting a reward (your spiritual benefit). Don't ever expect a harvest if you never sow. We don't do anything for money, but God expects us to teach about sowing and reaping. I receive from my giving and you receive from your giving. Bon appetit and great success.
